

Book Donation Policy and Form

The Institute of Law Library is pleased to accept gifts of books, pamphlets, periodicals and other suitable materials. It is understood that the Library is free to use and assign such gifts as it sees fit in order to obtain the maximum value and use from such material.

Books and other materials not needed for the collection may be sold or otherwise disposed of in an appropriate manner. Proceeds from the book sales benefit the library book budget.

I am therefore making this donation in accordance with the above policy.

Name of donor (please print)

Mailing address of donor

Signature of donor

Date

_____ Please tick if you would like the donation acknowledged on the bookplate which will be placed in the book, if it is added to the library collection.

Please specify name to be used on bookplate:

If you have any questions or comments please contact the Librarian at:

The Institute of Law
Law House
1 Seale Street
St Helier
Jersey, Channel Islands
JE2 3QG
Tel: +44 (0)1534 826060
Email: library@lawinstitute.ac.je